Welcome to St. Mark's!

... a vibrant community of faith, which has gathered for worship since 1836 and in the current building since 1848. If this is your first visit with us, know that we are delighted you are here. Please, introduce yourself and be sure to sign our guest sign-in sheet in the foyer and/or fill-out a Visitor's Welcome Card. Also, please take a welcome folder on the Welcome Desk.

Church Office Hours: Monday—Thursday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday— 9 a.m. to noon.

Weather Policy: St. Mark's will post closures to WZZM 13, WOOD TV8, Facebook and our website by 7:00 a.m. or as soon as possible. The decision on afternoon and evening activities will be made separately, posted by noon.

Reserved Accessible Spaces: Note, there are three designated spaces for those with assistive devices or in need of extra space, two in the north transept and one on the north side of the nave. Please, leave those spaces available and the adjoining pews for family members.

Safety: The outer doors to the Parish House will be locked fifteen minutes after Services begin with a security guard on duty to be of assistance. Upon leaving a restroom, please wash hands with warm soapy water and sanitize. Please, pay attention to the nearest exit in the Sanctuary. An announcement will be made in case of an emergency. Children will be ushered out of the building to a designated place for safety away from the Church complex.

Parking on Sundays: Limited parking is available in the Parish Lot. If you are able, please, consider not parking in the Parish Lot to reserve access for those less mobile. Consider the free metered parking on Pearl, Ionia, Lyon, Fountain and other streets near the church, the Kendall Lot across the street when the gate is up, the upper levels of the GRCC building on Fountain Street (only until 2 p.m.), and the Ellis Parking Lot at 210 Ionia just west of Lyon Street. For the Ellis Lot: vouchers for free parking on Sundays are available from an Usher, a Greeter or on the Resource Table in the north transept (must be used along with original parking ticket).

Rest Rooms are located on the main level of the Parish House under the exit sign at the top of the Foyer ramp. Additional rest rooms are located on the second level of the Parish House; those able to use stairs are encouraged to use upper-floor restrooms.

Weekly Worship and Prayer at St. Mark's: Eucharist on Sundays at 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Midweek Eucharist on Wednesdays at noon from September through May. Compline (Night Prayer) on Mondays and Thursdays at 8:00 p.m. via Facebook live. All are always welcome!

Children's Ministry: Sundays, we offer children's formation during 10:30 services. This includes formation, nursery care and church school. For more information please contact Jeff Brown, Director of Faith Formation, at jeffb@stmarksgr.org.

Youth Ministry: Grand Rapids Episcopal Youth: G.R.E.Y. is a joint youth ministry between St. Mark's and St. Andrew's Episcopal Churches for youth in grades 6-12. We have regular formation gatherings during the school year and service as well as social activities throughout the year. Please contact our Director of Faith Formation, Jeff Brown, for more information: jeffatgrey@gmail.com.

Adult Formation Ministry: Adult Forums are offered on Wednesday evenings and Sunday mornings at different times of the year. Episcopal 101: An Inquirer's Journey is offered yearly for adults especially those seeking Confirmation, Reception into the Episcopal Church or to Reaffirm one's faith. A multi-year seminar, Education for Ministry (EFM), is offered during the program year. Please, contact Doug Karsen for more information at karsencd@gmail.com.

Breakfast Café Ministry: A program to nourish our neighbors with a hot meal, is at 8:15 a.m. every Saturday. If you would like more information and to possibly volunteer, please contact Judy Freeman at judyfw@comcast.net.

Land Acknowledgment: St. Mark's recognizes that our property sits on land of the indigenous people of the Three Fires. It is our privilege to occupy this land while recognizing and acknowledging with sadness the deep wounds created many years ago by our forebears.

St. Mark's eNews: For the fullest expression of St. Marks' activities, see the weekly eNews in your email or our website.

Cell Phones: We ask that you silence your cell phone; if you are on call, please turn it to vibrate when you enter the church.

Welcome

Introit – Ye Powers Who Stand

R.B. Farlee

Gathering Hymn – Blue Hymnal 410: Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

Lauda anima

Prayer of Invocation

Presider: Praise be to the Holy Trinity!

All: God is sound and life, Creator of the Universe, Source of all life, whom the angels sing; wondrous Light of all mysteries known or unknown to humankind, and life that lives in all. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Presider: Let us confess our sins against God and God's creation. (A pause is observed for reflection)

All: Holy and merciful God, we confess that we have failed to honor you by rightly claiming our kinship with all your creatures. We have walked heavily on your earth, overused and wasted its resources, taken for granted its beauty and abundance, and treated its inhabitants unjustly, holding future generations hostage to our greed. Have mercy on us and forgive us our sin. Renew in us the resolve to keep and conserve your earth as you desire and intend, with grateful and compassionate hearts, through your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Presider: Let us offer praise to God.

Collect

Deacon: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Deacon: Let us pray. Everlasting God, you have ordained and constituted in a wonderful order the ministries of angels and mortals: Mercifully grant that, as your holy angels always serve and worship you in heaven, so by your appointment they may help and defend us here on earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The Hebrew Reading (You may sit.)

Genesis 28:10-17

Lector I: A reading from the Book of Genesis.

Jacob left Beer-sheba and went toward Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the Lord stood beside him and said, "I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring; and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, "Surely the Lord is in this place—and I did not know it!" And he was afraid, and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

Lector: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 103: 19-22

Benedic, anima mea

Lector at 8:00 a.m.: Let us pray the psalm responsively by half verse.

At 10:30 a.m., the Antiphon is intoned by the choir and repeated thereafter.

The Lord is full of com - pas - sion and mer - cy, slow to an - ger and of great kind - ness.

The Lord has set his throne in heaven, *
and his kingship has dominion over all.

Bless the Lord, you angels of his,
you mighty ones who do his bidding, *
and hearken to the voice of his word.

Antiphon

Bless the Lord, all you his hosts, * you ministers of his who do his will.

Bless the Lord, all you works of his,
in all places of his dominion; *
bless the Lord, O my soul.

Antiphon

The Christian Reading

Revelation 12:7-12

Lector II: A Reading from the Book of Revelation.

War broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back, but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world – he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming, “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah, for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to life even in the face of death. Rejoice then, you heavens and those who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!”

Lector: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Hymn – Blue Hymnal 625: Ye Holy Angels Bright

Darwall’s 148th

The Gospel

John 1:47-51

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, O Christ.

When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!" Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Deacon: The Gospel of Christ.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

Homily (You may sit.)

The Rev. Valerie Ambrose

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for † the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People (You may stand.)

Lector I: Blessed God, whose love calls the whole creation into covenant with you, and who puts in our hands responsibility for the care of the earth and its creatures: we pray for all to whom you have given life and being, saying, "Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace."

Lector I: For the well-being of the earth; for its resources of water, air, light, and soil, that they may be tended for the good of all creatures, we pray:

All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector II: For the waters of the earth; for their careful use and conservation, that we may have the will and the ability to keep them clean and pure, we pray:

All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector I: For the mineral and energy resources of the planet, that we may learn sustainable consumption and sound care of the environment from which they come, we pray:

All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector II: For the animals of the earth, wild and domestic, large and very small, that they may know the harmony of relationship that sustains all life, we pray:
All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector I: For the creatures of the earth who do us harm and those whose place in your creation we do not understand or welcome, that we may see them as beloved creatures of God, we pray:
All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector II: For all who shape public policies affecting the planet and its creatures, that they may consider wisely the well-being of all who come after us, we pray:
All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector I: O God, bless all bishops, priests, and deacons: Michael, Presiding Bishop; Sean, Presiding Bishop-Elect; Skip, our Assisting Bishop; Bonnie and Rayford, Bishops of Michigan and Northern Michigan; Moises, Bishop of the Dominican Republic and Craig, ELCA Bishop of the North/West Lower Michigan Synod. We pray:
All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector II: O God, bless St. John's of Dryden and its Priest-in-Charge, Harold Schneider; Emmanuel of Hastings and its Senior Warden, Georgette Schirmer. We remember the Church of Pakistan. We pray:
All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector I: For all those engaged in conservation, in agriculture and ranching, in aquaculture and fishing, in mining and industry, and in forestry and timber-harvesting, that the health, fruitfulness, and beauty of the natural world may be sustained alongside human activity, we pray:
All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector II: For the creatures and the human beings of your world who are ill, or in danger, pain, or special need, especially those on our Parish Prayer List, and for all who suffer from the unjust, violent, or wasteful use of the earth's resources or their devastation by war, that all may one day live in communities of justice and peace, we pray:
All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector I: For the gifts of science and technology and for those who practice these skills, that they may be wise, visionary, and compassionate in their work, we pray:
All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Lector II: For the creatures and the people of the earth whose lives and deaths have contributed to the fruitful abundance of this planet (pause to add names, silently or aloud), we pray:
All: Merciful God, keep your planet and people in peace.

Deacon: O merciful Creator, your hand is open wide to satisfy the needs of every living creature: Make us always thankful for your loving providence; and remembering the account that we must give one day, grant that we may be faithful stewards of your good gifts; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.
All: Amen.

The Peace

Presider: The peace of Christ be always with you.

All: And also with you.

Presider: With respect, let us offer one another a sign of peace.

The Invitation

Presider:

Friends in Christ, the table of bread and wine is now made ready.

It is the table of company with Jesus and all who love him.

It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world with whom Jesus identified himself.

It is the table of communion with the earth in which Christ became incarnate.

Come, it is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

The Great Thanksgiving Eucharistic Prayer I (BCP)

Presider: God is with us.

People: God is present here.

Presider: Rejoice! Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift our hearts to the Most High.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Holy One.

People: It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Presider: We do praise you, our intimate God, the one who is with us, and with all of creation, the source of this magical, mystical, sensual, beautiful, earth. From microbes to whales, you have created all of us. We are privileged to be a strand in all of your creation, including this strange and wonderful home, our earth, the open sky above, the dazzling array of stars and planets, and the unfathomable galaxies beyond us. You have blessed us with a world of infinite variety and beauty, a land of mountains and meadows, canyons and valleys, deserts and jungles. You have provided oceans teeming with life, streams and rivers, crystal clear lakes, and cascading waterfalls. We share this land with all of your creatures, from mosquito to mountain lion, from seal to scorpion. You have formed all of this, this land of such intense wildness and beauty. Therefore, we praise you, O Sacred One, joining our voices with the cry of your animals, the rocks, the stars, the Moon, the Sun, and all the universe as we shout with joy:

Sanctus (Spoken or sung)

Powell

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Presider: We bless you and thank you Gracious God for all these gifts, and for weaving us, the web of humanity, into this world. But instead of caring deeply for this most perfect of creations, the universe beyond our comprehension and this earth in which we live, we have rebelled against it, against ourselves, against you. We disregarded the interconnected web of life in which we live. Instead of loving it as a mother loves her child, we put ourselves above it, as if it were something we could own. It became something to control rather than a part of us and a part of you. Each time you have called us back, called us to understand that we are not masters of the earth, but instead a part of the earth. You continually remind us that caring for you means caring for your earth and for each other.

All: Then, All-Holy God, you sent Jesus Christ to be among us. Through his incarnation, you taught us that you are always with us and all of the world. He showed us the way to grace and freedom, and how to show compassion to each other and the world. He gathered a people as your own and filled us with longing for justice and peace for all of creation. Keep us ever vigilant to follow his example so that we may bring about your reign that he opened for us, through his life, his death, and his resurrection. It is a reign where all your creation will be one.

Presider: On the night before he died, Jesus came to table with those he loved. Recalling his own actions of feeding the poor and eating with the outcast, he took bread, gave thanks to You, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in memory of me." When supper was ended, he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to You, and passed the cup among his friends and said: "Take this all of you and drink from it, this is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant, do this in memory of me."

Presider: Therefore, let us pray:

All: Gracious God among us, help us to feel your presence, and give us the strength to serve your creation and your people this day and every day.

Presider: Now gathered at your table, God of Creation, and remembering what Jesus Christ taught us, we offer to you this bread and this wine, a gift of your creation and work of human hands. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts, O Sacred One. May they become for us the Body and Blood of Christ, just as we, your people, are that same Body. Breathe your Spirit upon us also and upon the entire earth. Make us one with your earth, so that all of Creation may become one with your Body.

All: Bring all of us, from every clan, tribe, and nation together, to feast upon your abundant banquet, prepared from the fruits of your earth and made possible by the redemption of your Christ.

Presider: Through Jesus Christ, in the unity of the entire Universe, all glory and honor to God and Creator, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider: Let us pray the Lord's Prayer in whichever language or version you prefer.

(Traditional) Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

(Contemporary) Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

(Spanish) Padre nuestro, que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre; venga tu reino. Hágase tu voluntad en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy el pan de este día y perdona nuestras deudas, como nosotros perdonamos a nuestros deudores y no nos dejes caer en la tentación mas libranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, el poder, y la gloria por los siglos de los siglos. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer (You may stand.)

Deacon: Let us pray:

All: Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people forgiven, healed, renewed, that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Presider: May the road rise to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rain fall soft upon your fields, and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of God’s hand. And may God bless us, †Father, Son and Holy Spirit this day and forever more, we pray:

All: Amen.

Parish Notes

Welcome! Guests, please sign the book in the front lobby. Fill out a Welcome Card (inside the folders in the podium) to get a name tag, receive weekly eNews or officially join the St. Mark's Family in Faith.

Adult Formation, Sundays at 9:15 a.m.: Starting on the 22nd, meet with Fr. David for a new video and discussion series on the Old Testament. Nursery care is now available for this hour!

Sunday School: See eNews for parent form and program details. Today is our first afternoon youth group meetup! We start a series on female Biblical leadership, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m., at St. Andrew's on 3 Mile.

Intergenerational Pumpkin Decorating Today on the lower level after the 10:30 a.m. Service. All welcome!

Book Study Continues: Today and Oct. 13, 1:00 – 3:30 p.m. See eNews for the Zoom link to discuss The False White Gospel: Rejecting Christian Nationalism, Reclaiming True Faith and Refounding Democracy.

Campus Ministry Wednesdays! We welcome ~60 students weekly for lunch and a peaceful place to connect with peers and interested adults. To host a meal or serve as contact email Laura, laurakozminski@gmail.com.

Midweek Eucharist: Enjoy a prayerful half hour in community on Wednesdays at noon in St. Mary's Chapel.

Love God, Love God's World: Please join us for a nine-session series of adult formation! This brand-new diocesan curriculum explores what creation care means and what our obligations are to protect and sustain God's creation. We will meet in person at the church at 7:00 p.m., every other Wednesday beginning October 23rd. The gathering starts with snacks (earth-friendly, of course), then discussion of the session's readings and short videos. Contact discussion leader Rich Hiskes, hiskesr@gvsu.edu, for free access to all materials online.

Blessing of the Animals, October 6th at Both Services. Bring a beloved animal, photo or stuffie to be blessed.

Sharing the Bounty Walk, October 6th, 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. Have you signed up at the Welcome Desk? We seek walkers and sponsors for this 1.5 mile walk fundraiser for Breakfast Cafe and the Downtown Food Pantry.

Spa Day Update and Volunteers, October 12th: Spa Day evolved into a quarterly Foot Clinic and Hair Cuts, on Saturdays after our Cafe. Volunteers needed. Contact Jane, 616-915-6396 janealisonkotarski@gmail.com.

Flu Immunization Clinics, October 12th and 13th: Corewell Health will offer flu shots at Breakfast Cafe on October 12th until 11:00 a.m, as well as to parishioners on Sunday the 13th from noon – 1:00 p.m.

Together West Michigan (TWM) Relational Power Walks: Turnout is key in this election, and TWM invites you to do something. We ask members to join us for a two-hour walk in a local precinct with very low voter turnout. Many of the residents are low income, black or Hispanic. They feel elected representatives don't pay any attention to their concerns. When we go out, we ask them which issues keep them up at night and invite them to an assembly with local politicians where their voices can be heard. We meet at either Oakdale Park Church or Neland Avenue Church for a brief training before we pair off. Please register using the eNews links.

Candidates Accountability Assembly, October 12th: St. Mark's committed to bringing 20+ people to this TWM assembly, where local candidates will be asked to commit to working on issues our community cares about.

Vestry Person of the Day: Bring your questions or ideas to the Welcome Desk, to Dan McDonald or Brian Topolewski after the 8:00 a.m. Service, or to Amy Richards-Duncan after the 10:30 a.m. Service.
